++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Clear and dry overnight, rain moving in on Tuesday.

This Evening and Tonight:
A dry evening with clear skies for most of the country before cloud builds from the west overnight. Risk of frost forming under these clear skies. Feeling cold, especially over any lying snow, and winds strengthening. Minimum temperature -3 deg C (27 deg F).

Tuesday:
A band of rain, heavy at times, spreads eastwards across the country during the day, wintry over hills and allowing ice to form in places. Further rain overnight. Feeling milder. Maximum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Cloudy with outbreaks of rain for Wednesday, turning heavy and persistent overnight. Becoming windy with coastal gales. A rainy start for Thursday, turning drier later. Unsettled for Friday. Mild throughout.
